

REVA Medical, LLC.
JOB DESCRIPTION

Job Title: Director, Manufacturing Operations
Function: Operations
Date: 08/25/2022
Status: Exempt

Job Summary

This position is responsible for the implementation and production of the company's vascular technology and technology transfer/validation to commercial operations. The role requires the oversight and management of production and facilities including: forecasting inventory material control, production control, production engineering, and manufacturing engineering. Additionally in this position, the candidate must be a self-starter that can take a very hands on role directly in the day to day manufacturing operations, as well as interacting with cross-functional teams.

Essential Job Functions

Must demonstrate strategic and forward thinking to set and meet company goals. Must also demonstrate appropriate business judgment in all aspects of decision making which considers and supports the broader company objectives.

Based on company requirements, defines production goals, implements and improves technologies and resolve problems in conjunctions with Quality Assurance, Product Development and Engineering.

Provide solid leadership and manage staff by setting the standard of a strong, teamwork-focused work ethic.

Collaborates with Engineering and Product Development to build a broad understanding of the product, process and design intent and implements manufacturing process to support the company's biomaterial products and provides the manufacturing component for successful technology transfer to commercial scale operations.

Develops, implement and validates processes that support the program(s) that will scale up production and validation of product.

Develops and continuously improves, manufacturing and supply chain processes and systems, and identifies opportunities to improve organizational effectiveness and efficiency by optimizing workflow.

Develops supplier base and effectively manages vendor relationships.

Perform material and resource planning to meet the growing needs of the company

Organizes and manages facilities, including space planning, as required to support technical operations.

REVA Medical, LLC.
JOB DESCRIPTION

Qualifications

Minimum BA or BS degree, engineering degree preferred.

10+ years operations management experience preferred in an ISO 9001 and/or medical device manufacturing environment, or equivalent and demonstrated working knowledge of cGMP guidelines.

Interventional vascular products manufacturing experience ideal; class III implant experience preferred. Experience working with high precision, high quality polymer products highly desirable.

Equivalent combination of education and experience is acceptable.

Must demonstrate excellent problem solving and project management skills and be a critical analytical thinker with strong attention to detail.

Must demonstrate effective communication and interpersonal skills and the ability to work in cross functional teams on technology issues and business objectives.

Physical Demands/Working Environment

The physical demands described here are representative of those that must be met by an employee to successfully perform the essential functions of this job. Must be able to lift objects weighing up to 50 pounds. While performing this job, the employee may also be required to sit or stand for prolonged periods of time.

Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions.

Must be able to travel, including international travel.

Approvals

Employee Signature

Date

Employee Name (Print)

Manager Signature

Date

Manager Name (Print)